The State of Wholeness

"Deeply internalize this: You are worth more than the worst thing that has ever happened to you. You are worth more than the worst thing you've ever done. You are worth more than the stories you inherited. These things do not have to be your legacy or your identity. And...You cannot change what happened to you. That moment is gone. You can only choose what happens next."

The State of Wholeness

"This is life. And so perfection isn't the goal here. Consistency is. Bravery is. Discipline is. Co-creating a plan with experts and friends and family members and then sticking to it is. This is about long-term life change. You will continue to take actions, challenge your thoughts, and seek healing and health every single day. For the rest of your life."
